JUDGING CRITERIA

Scholarships will be judged on K-Family Service (50%), Service outside the K-Family (35%) and Leadership in the K-Family (15%).

For each of the categories below, please include a narrative about your two best projects and the role you played. Also, please list additional projects you have worked on, or positions you have held, without narrative.

K-Family Service (no more than two pages) – Service to your school, community, and the world as a member of Circle K or (especially for first-year college students) Key Club. For the narration, please be specific about your role in a project; service projects that you have developed and/or run should be noted. If the project is a fund-raiser for charity, please be specific about the amount raised and why this charity was chosen.

Service outside the K-Family (no more than two pages) – Service that you do on your own, or through a non-Kiwanis organization, such as a church, or other community service groups. For the narration, why did you choose this project or program, and what did you personally accomplish?

Leadership in the K-Family (no more than one page) – What positions have you held as a district or club officer, committee chair, event chair, etc.? For your two favorite offices, what were your significant achievements?
